Leadership Minute

Johari Window

By Dan Wietecha

A couple of weeks ago, I had a conversation about blindspots and how lack of self-awareness impacts relationships and our interactions with others.

The Johari Window is a model developed by a couple of psychologists actually named Joe and Harry (Joseph Luft and Harrington Ingham), which in a nerdy way is kind of a cool piece of trivia.

Kudos Korner

From Kelly Murtaugh - Kudos to all who participated in the Hastings High School College and Career Fair on April 4. Thank you for your time, talents, and positive outreach to the community!

From Megan Schlei - Kudos to all of the front desk staff at City Hall. Your hard work and ability to manage the flow of visitors to City Hall do not go unnoticed!

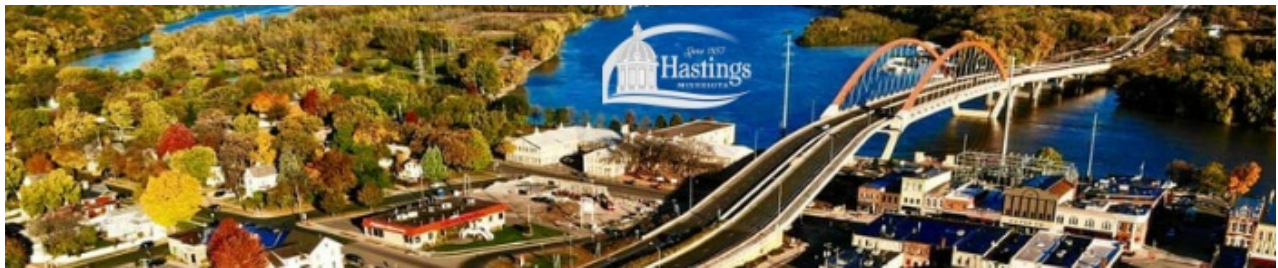

Staff Updates

Congratulations to Bryce Thompson and Josh Sirinek for completing the Roads Scholar Program through the University of Minnesota. This program provides training and professional development through a series of certificate programs. Thank you for your hard work and dedication!

Building Inspector Alana Siebenaler has successfully completed coursework and passed the exam to earn her Building Official Limited certification from the State of Minnesota. Congratulations on all your hard work and dedication.
