Keeping your pet's mouth healthy

- Regularly check for tooth decay, swollen or bleeding gums, foul odor, discoloration or lumps
- Make daily teeth cleaning a bonding experience (with the aid of a pet-specific toothpaste)
- Schedule annual veterinary checkups for dental care

Did you know that February is National Pet Dental Health Month?

How pet insurance works

Nationwide pet insurance offers reimbursement for eligible veterinary bills—like Russell's dental debacle.¹

Once your plan is in effect, it's easy to use it for the veterinary care your pet needs.

- 1 Visit any veterinarian and pay for treatment
- 2 Submit a claim with your invoice
- 3 Get reimbursed for eligible expenses

Protect your pet's smile (and more!) with Nationwide pet insurance.¹
