“Do it yourself” legal forms / document preparation

A simple and no-cost online process will enable you to complete your own legal document preparation from the comfort of your home, without incurring the cost of an attorney, or dealing with lengthy completion and delivery periods.

- It's easy to start. Click on the title of the document you need and a questionnaire will open in your web browser (PC or MAC)
- Move through the questionnaire answering all the questions. The documents have detailed, step-by-step instructions.
- You will see your document being created during the process.
- Come back any time to edit and finish.
- All documents are accessible in your My Documents 24/7.
- Refer to the Legal Information guide for articles, legal definitions, tips, Q&A's and more

You have access to legal information on topics related to:
